

Europass Curriculum Vitae

Mark ROGERSON

An experienced communications professional and former television journalist with in-depth understanding of both the public and private sectors. He has extensive managerial and consultancy experience in corporate and institutional communications. Mark has developed and coordinated a range of public relations, communications and crisis management programmes for clients throughout the EU including the European Commission, the European Court of Auditors, the European Parliament, GW Pharmaceuticals plc and The London International Financial Futures Exchange.

Before he began his career in public relations, Mark's background was as a broadcast journalist with the BBC. He was a producer and presenter on Radio 4's The Financial World Tonight, after which he worked as Economics Correspondent for BBC Television News. He was also a reporter on The Money Programme, BBC 2's award-winning weekly business magazine.

From 2015 to 2019 he was Spokesperson for the European Court of Auditors. Previously, he advised DG EMPL on communications for the EURES labour mobility project and worked with DG EAC on the team which developed the Erasmus Mundus programme for international students. He was an on-screen presenter and one of the original concept developers for Europarl TV.
