

2023 Rule of Law Report - targeted stakeholder consultation

Fields marked with * are mandatory.

Introduction

The annual Rule of Law Report lies at the centre of the European rule of law mechanism, which acts as a preventive tool, deepening multilateral dialogue and joint awareness of rule of law issues. So far, three editions of the Rule of Law Report have been published in 2020, 2021 and 2022.

In the preparation of the first three editions of the Rule of Law Report, the Commission has relied on a diversity of relevant sources, including from Member States, country visits, and stakeholders' contributions collected through the targeted stakeholder consultation [1]. The information provided has informed the Commission's country-specific assessments in preparing the Report. Building on the positive experience from the first three editions of the Rule of Law Report, the Commission is now inviting stakeholders to provide written contributions for the preparation of the 2023 Rule of Law Report through this targeted consultation.

The contribution to be provided should include (1) information on measures taken to implement the recommendations addressed to the Member State in the 2022 Rule of Law report, as well as developments with regard to the points raised in the respective country chapter and (2) any other significant developments since January 2022 [2] falling under the 'type of information' outlined in the next section.

The input should be short and concise and summarise information related to one or more of the areas referred to in the template. You are invited to focus on the areas that relate to the scope of work and expertise of your organisation. Existing reports, statements, legislation or other documents may be referenced with a link (no need to provide the full text). Stakeholders are encouraged to make references to any contributions already provided in a different context or to Reports and documents already published. Contributions should focus on significant developments both as regards the legal framework and its implementation in practice.

If you wish to submit information concerning several Member States, you will have to fill-in the questionnaire separately for each Member States (due to the size of the questionnaire). There is no limit to the number of contributions submitted by a single participant. In such cases, you are not required to repeat the information in the section "about you" that is non-mandatory nor the information on horizontal developments.

Please provide your contribution by 20 January 2023. Should you have any requests for clarifications or encounter difficulties in filling in the questionnaire, you can contact the Commission at the following email address: rule-of-law-network@ec.europa.eu.

[2] Unless the information was already submitted in the consultation for the previous Rule of Law Reports.

Type of information

The topics are structured according to four pillars: I. Justice system; II. Anti-corruption framework; III. Media pluralism; and IV. Other institutional issues related to checks and balances. The replies could include aspects set out below under each pillar. This can include challenges, current work streams, positive developments and best practices:

Legislative developments

- Newly adopted legislation
- Legislative drafts currently discussed in Parliament
- Legislative plans envisaged by the Government

Policy developments

- Implementation of legislation
- Evaluations, impact assessment, surveys
- White papers/strategies/actions plans/consultation processes
- Follow-up to reports/recommendations of Council of Europe bodies or other international organisations
- Important administrative measures
- Generalised practices

Developments related to the judiciary / independent authorities

- Important case law by national courts
- Important decision/opinions from independent bodies/authorities
- State of play on terms, nominations and expired mandates for high-level positions (e.g. Supreme Court, Constitutional Court, Council for the Judiciary, heads of independent authorities included in the scope of the questionnaire[1])

Any other relevant developments

- Respondents are free to add any further information, which they deem relevant; however, this should be short and to the point.

If there are no changes, it is sufficient to indicate this and the information covered in the contributions for the previous Rule of Law Reports should not be repeated.

[1] Such as: media regulatory authorities and bodies, national human rights institutions, equality bodies, ombudsman institutions, supreme audit institutions and, where they exist, transparency authorities.

Questions on horizontal developments

In this section, you are invited to provide information on general horizontal developments or trends, both positive and negative, covering all or several Member States. In particular, you could mention issues that are common to several Member States, as well as best practices identified in one Member State that could be replicated. Moreover, you could refer to your activities in the area of the four pillars and sub-topics (an overview of all sub-topics can be found below), and, if you represent a Network of national organisations, to the support you might have provided to one of your national members.

Questions for contribution

The following four pillars (I.-IV.) are sub-divided into topics (A., B., etc.) and sub-topics (1., 2., 3., etc.). For each of the topics and sub-topics, you are invited to provide (1) information on measures taken to implement the recommendations addressed to the Member States in the 2022 Rule of Law report, as well as developments with regard to the points raised in the respective country chapter of the 2022 Rule of Law Report and (2) any other significant developments since January 2022^[1]. Please include a link to and reference relevant legislation/documents (in the national language and/or where available, in English) if relevant. Significant developments can include challenges, positive developments and best practices, covering both legislative developments or implementation and practices.

If there are developments you consider relevant under each of the four pillars that are not mentioned in the sub-topics, please add them under the section "other - please specify". Only significant developments should be covered.

Information provided in reply to the first question under each pillar, related to the follow-up to the recommendations, does not need to be repeated in subsequent parts of the questionnaire, but can be cross-referenced in the subsequent questions, where relevant. All other questions are not limited to the recommendations, but as in previous years, cover the entire scope of the Report.

[1] Unless already covered in the input for the previous Rule of Law Reports.

Member State covered in contribution [only one choice possible]

If you wish to submit information concerning several Member States, please fill in the questionnaire separately for each Member State. There is no limit to the number of contributions submitted by a single participant.

I. Justice System

Please provide information on measures taken to follow-up on the recommendations received in the 2022 Report regarding the justice system (if applicable)

3000 character(s) maximum

There are no changes regarding the justice system in 2022, in which concerns the administrative and tax courts, except the following references.

1. By deliberation of the High Council for Administrative and Tax Courts, of 3 June, 2022, the Regulation of the Supplementary Judges Board was approved.

Article 63(1) of the Statute of the Administrative and Fiscal Courts, approved by Law n.º 13/2002 of 19 February, provides for the existence of pockets of judges for secondment to courts in order to adjust the placement of auxiliary judges to the real transitional needs of judges, whose management is assigned to the High Council for the Administrative and Fiscal Courts.

By means of Ordinance n.º 288/2017, of September 28, the supplementary framework of judges of the administrative and tax courts was established.

The additional framework of judges is an indispensable instrument for the regular functioning of the administrative and tax courts, as it makes up for the temporary absences of judges and also provides an adequate response to occasional needs arising from an increase in the volume of service in the courts.

2. Regarding the legislative framework for the functioning of the High Council for Administrative and Tax Courts, is still expected.

However, on 10 January, 2023, the Minister of Justice announced that the first legislative package of the "Reform of Administrative Justice" should be presented at the beginning of 2023 and foresees the creation of a simplified form of procedure, which will be applied on an experimental basis, in a pilot court and for cases of less than five thousand euros in value and of low complexity.

The new legislation will provide the High Council for Administrative and Fiscal Courts with the necessary means for a more efficient management, and, also, alterations to the Statute of Administrative and Tax Courts, in order to promote the specialization in the second instance, and the regime of the creation, by the High Council for the Administrative and Tax Courts, of teams of judges, specialized and punctual, or of recovery of pendency.

It is also foreseen the creation of a mechanism to encourage the extinction of the instance by procedural business, a measure aimed at reducing the number of pending cases.

Finally, it was further announced the creation, in the interior of the country, of the Centre' Central Administrative Court.

In accordance with this announcement made on 10 January, a draft of decree-law n.º 368/XXIII/2022 was approved on January 17, 2023, establishing the administrative and financial autonomy of the Superior Council of Administrative and Fiscal Courts (CSTAF) and defining the organization of its services.

This draft was sent on January 19 to the CSTAF, as part of the hearing process, for pronouncement within 20 days.

A. Independence

Appointment and selection of judges, prosecutors and court presidents (incl. judicial review)

(The reference to 'judges' concerns judges at all level and types of courts as well as judges at constitutional courts)

3000 character(s) maximum

B. Quality of justice

(Under this topic, you are not required to give statistical information but should provide input on the type of information outlined under section 2)

Accessibility of courts (e.g. court/legal fees, legal aid, language)

3000 character(s) maximum

Resources of the judiciary (human/financial/material)

(Material resources refer e.g. to court buildings and other facilities)

3000 character(s) maximum

By deliberation of the CSTAF of 20 July 2022, the law judges from the 6th Training Course for Magistrates for the Administrative and Tax Courts were appointed as judges of the Administrative and Tax Courts, with effect from 1 September 2022.

In 2022, the High Council of the Administrative and Tax Courts opened competitions to fill vacancies in the administrative and tax litigation sections of the North and South Administrative Central Courts and of the Supreme Administrative Court, which are expected to be completed in the first half of 2023.

Training of justice professionals (including judges, prosecutors, lawyers, court staff)

3000 character(s) maximum

By order of July 14, 2022, of the President of the CSTAF, ratified by deliberation on July 20, 28 judges, from the 7th Training Course for Magistrates for the Administrative and Tax Courts, were appointed, as trainee judges, with effect from 16 July 2022.

On the same date, the training locations and vacancies in the 2nd cycle were also approved for the 30 justice auditors from the 8th Training Course for Administrative and Tax Courts who completed the first cycle of the theoretical-practical training course on July 15.

In September 2022, the 29 candidates qualified to attend the 9th training course for judges for the administrative and tax courts began their training at the Judicial Studies Center.

By order of November 18, 2022, the Minister of Justice authorized the opening of a new training course for magistrates to fill 31 vacancies in the judiciary of the administrative and tax courts.

This increase in the number of judges is expected to reduce pendencies in jurisdiction courts.

Digitalisation (e.g. use of digital technology, particularly electronic communication tools, within the justice system and with court users, including resilience of justice systems in COVID-19 pandemic)

3000 character(s) maximum

For the purpose of publishing court decisions in a public database, with online access, North Court of Appeal and Supreme Administrative Court have already implemented the anonymisation/pseudonymisation assisted by an algorithm, supervised by human means.

For the publication of 1st instance judicial sentences, IGFEJ is designing/developing a program to help its anonymisation.

Use of assessment tools and standards (e.g. ICT systems for case management, court statistics and their transparency, monitoring, evaluation, surveys among court users or legal professionals)

3000 character(s) maximum
