

	Kurt VANDENBERGHE
Nationality	Belgian
Academic qualifications	➤ 1990 – 1992 M.A. in International Relations, International Economics and Conflict Management, The John Hopkins University, Paul H. Nitze School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS), Washington DC, United States and Bologna, Italy ➤ 1988 – 1989 Diploma in Public and International Affairs, Université Catholique de Louvain-la-Neuve, Louvain-la-Neuve, Belgium ➤ 1988 Licentiate in Romance Literature and Linguistics (French and Italian), Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Leuven, Belgium
Professional experience in the European Institutions	➤ Since 16 January 2023: Director-General – Directorate-General Climate Action (DG CLIMA) ➤ 11/2019 – 01/2023: European Green Deal Advisor / Member of the Cabinet of President von der Leyen ➤ 02/2016 – 10/2019: Director for Policy Development and Coordination (DG RTD) ➤ 06/2019 – 10/2019: Acting Director for Research and Innovation Outreach (DG RTD) ➤ 07/2013 – 01/2016: Director for Climate Action and Resource Efficiency (DG RTD) ➤ 02/2010 – 06/2013: Head of Cabinet of Commissioner Potočnik (Portfolio: Environment) ➤ 11/2004 – 01/2010: Deputy Head of Cabinet / Head of Cabinet of Commissioner Potočnik (Portfolio: Science and Research) ➤ 09/1999 – 11/2004: Member of Cabinet of Commissioner Busquin (Portfolio: Research) ➤ 01/1999 – 09/1999: Parliamentary Coordinator reporting to the Director-General (DG Transport) ➤ 11/1996 – 02/1999: Coordinator of DG Transport's Research Programme, Coordinator of the Commission's Intermodal Transport Task Force (DG Transport)
Professional experience before joining the European Institutions	➤ 04/1993 – 10/1996: Manager, Ernst & Young Association Management
Language Skills	Dutch (mother tongue) ➤ French

