

Lucía Rodríguez is an independent Board member of the Bank of Spain, as well as an independent member of its Executive Committee.

With over fifteen years of experience in macro-fiscal issues, her professional career has unfolded in positions of responsibility in the Spanish Independent Fiscal Authority (AIReF), as well as different roles within the EU Network of Independent Fiscal Institutions, the European Commission, and the Spanish Ministry of Economy and Finance.

She has also been a Board member of the Spanish National Cybersecurity Institute.

Additionally, since 2022 she is a professor of the Master's Program in European Economic Governance of Universidad Carlos III de Madrid.

She holds a double degree in Business Administration and Management and in Law from the University of Comillas.

In 2008, she joined the High Corps of Spanish State Economists and Trade Experts.

Her experience in the field of European economic and fiscal governance has led her to be a member of different task forces on rethinking EU economic governance, and to publish several articles and papers in different monographs and professional journals.