

Disclaimer

All information on investment projects made available by the European Commission through the European Investment Project Portal ("EIPP") (hereinafter "Project Information") is made available on the understanding that users will exercise their own skill and care with respect to the use of the EIPP. The Project Information does thus not remove the onus on the user to perform his/her own due diligence on the individual investment project.

The Commission gives no warranty and makes no representation, whether expressed or implied, that the Project Information is error free. The Project Information is provided without any guarantees, conditions or warranties as to its accuracy. The Commission hereby expressly excludes any liability for any direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage incurred by any user in connection with this website or in connection with the use, inability to use, or results of the use of the Project Information, the EIPP or any sites linked to it and any materials posted on it, including, without limitation any liability for: loss of income or revenue, loss of business, loss of profits or contracts, loss of anticipated savings, loss of data, loss of reputation or goodwill and for any other loss or damage of any kind, however arising.

The material on this website is made available on the understanding that the Commission is not thereby engaged in rendering professional advice for a particular purpose. As set out in Article 15(2) of Regulation (EU) 2015/1017 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 25 June 2015 on the European Fund for Strategic Investment, the European Investment Advisory Hub and the European Investment Project Portal (hereinafter the "Regulation"), there is no link between publication of the Project Information, which is for information purposes only, and any possible future support of the projects described under the Regulation, under any other instrument of the Union, or through public funding. Before relying on the material, users should carefully evaluate the accuracy, completeness and relevance of the information for their specific purposes and use, carry out usual due diligence, and obtain professional advice appropriate for their particular circumstances. Mention of the Commission in any Project Information does not necessarily imply there has been any previous contact with the Commission's competent services on the project in question.

The Project Information may include views or recommendations of third parties which do not necessarily reflect the views of the Commission or indicate its commitment on or encouragement towards a particular course of action.

Links to other websites are inserted for convenience and do not constitute endorsement of material on those websites or of any associated organisation product or service. These external information sources should be assumed to be outside the control of the Commission for the purposes of any due diligence. It is thus the responsibility of users to ascertain whether the information on those websites is current, accurate, reliable and correct.

By accessing Project Information or other information through the EIPP, each user waives any rights to recourse against the Commission and releases the Commission from any and all claims relating to the usage of and/or reliance on the material made available through the website. In no event shall the Commission be liable for any injury, loss or damage resulting from use of or reliance upon the material.
