

Klaus Regling

- 2012-2022: Managing Director, European Stability Mechanism (ESM), Luxembourg
- 2010-2022: CEO, European Financial Stability Facility (EFSF), Luxembourg
- 2009-2010: Founder and Chairman, KR-Economics, Brussels
- 2008-2009: Fellow at the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, Singapore
- 2008-2011: Member of the Issing Commission
- 2001-2008: Director General ECFIN, European Commission, Brussels
- 1999-2001: Managing Director, Moore Capital Strategy Group, London
- 1991-1998: German Ministry of Finance, Bonn. From 1995 Director General for European and International Financial Relations
- 1989-1991: Head of the IMF-office for Indonesia, Jakarta
- 1985-1989: International Monetary Fund, Washington DC (International Capital Markets Division; Morocco, Philippines)
- 1981-1985: German Ministry of Finance, European Monetary Affairs Division, Bonn
- 1980-1981: Association of German Banks, Cologne
- 1975-1980: International Monetary Fund, Washington DC (YP-program, Research Department)
- 1969-1975: Studies of economics, Universities of Hamburg and Regensburg
- Born: 3 October 1950 in Lübeck, Germany