Publication of a vacancy for the function of Director for Government Finance Statistics (AD14)

(Luxembourg)

(Article 29(2) of the Staff Regulations)

COM/2023/10442

We are

Eurostat is a Directorate-General of the European Commission. Its mission is to provide high quality statistics and data on Europe that is used for informed decisions by EU institutions, the Member States, the financial markets, the business community, citizens, researchers and the media. Eurostat is in charge of coordinating and strengthening the governance of the European Statistical System (ESS) with the objective of providing easy access to all users to timely, reliable and comparable statistics at EU level. It is responsible for proposing all EU statistical legislation. Eurostat also cooperates with international organisations in the field of statistics and supports countries outside the EU in the improvement of their statistical systems.

Directorate D “Government Finance Statistics (GFS)” comprises 3 units with around 42 staff (permanent and non-permanent) and has an operating budget of approximately 0.5 million euros. It provides the European Union with high-quality statistical information on government finance in order to monitor, implement and develop Union economic policies and, in particular, the statistical implications of the Stability and Growth Pact. It also contributes to the development of international statistical standards in GFS, new metrics and methodologies, statistical capacity building and bilateral cooperation with external stakeholders in the areas of our responsibility.

The Offices of Eurostat are located in Luxembourg.

We propose

The challenging and high-profile position of Director for Government Finance Statistics (GFS) in Eurostat comprises the following main responsibilities:

- Leadership and strategic management in the activities of the Directorate (monitoring, implementing and developing statistics that underpin EU economic policies and, in particular, the statistical implications of the Stability and Growth Pact);
- Developing, in cooperation with Member States, methodologies and guidelines that ensure the correct statistical recording of existing or new policy measures, including the flows associated with the Recovery and Resilience Facility, the implications of government measures taken in relation to the COVID-19 crisis, and the policy measures aiming to alleviate energy price surges and rising inflation in the aftermath of the Russian aggression against Ukraine;
- Developing statistical standards in GFS at European and international level, new metrics and methodologies, statistical capacity building;
- Maintaining regular contacts and exchanges of information with the National Statistical Institutes of the Member States and other countries with which Eurostat has a professional and technical relationship;
- Represent the Directorate-General in external and internal events relevant to the Directorate or the Directorate-General;
- Management of human and financial resources.

The Director will act as Authorizing Officer by sub-delegation in accordance with Commission financial rules and regulations.

We look for (selection criteria)

Candidates should have:

- Age limit: candidates must not have reached regular retirement age, which for officials of the European Union is defined as being the end of the month in which the person reaches the age of 66 years (see Article 52 lit (a) of the Staff Regulations ⁴).

Selection and appointment

The selection and appointment will be conducted according to the European Commission's selection and recruitment procedures (see: Document on Senior Officials Policy ⁵).

As part of this selection procedure, the European Commission sets up a pre-selection panel. This panel analyses all applications, proceeds with a first eligibility verification and identifies candidates having the best profile in view of the selection criteria mentioned above, and who may be invited for an interview with the pre-selection panel.

Following these interviews, the pre-selection panel draws up its conclusions and proposes a list of candidates for further interviews with the European Commission's Consultative Committee on Appointments (CCA). The CCA, taking into consideration the conclusions of the pre-selection panel, will decide on the candidates to be invited for an interview.

Candidates who are called for an interview with the CCA participate in a full-day management assessment centre run by external recruitment consultants. Taking account of the results of the interview and the report of the assessment centre, the CCA establishes a shortlist of candidates it considers suitable for the function.

Candidates on the CCA shortlist will be interviewed by the relevant Member(s) of the Commission.

Following these interviews, the European Commission takes the appointment decision.

The selected candidate must have fulfilled any obligations imposed by law concerning military service, produce appropriate character references as to their suitability for the performance of their duties and be physically fit to perform their duties.

The selected candidate should hold, or be in the position to obtain, a valid security clearance certificate from his/her national security authority. A personal security clearance is an administrative decision following completion of a security screening conducted by the individual's competent national security authority in accordance with applicable national security laws and regulations, and certifying that an individual may be allowed to access classified information up to a specified level. (Note that the necessary procedure for obtaining a security clearance can be initiated on request of the employer only, and not by the individual candidate).

Until the personal security clearance has been granted by the Member State concerned and the clearance procedure completed with the legally required briefing from the European Commission's Security Directorate, the candidate will not be able to access EU Classified Information (EUCI) at the level of CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above, nor attend any meetings at which such EUCI is discussed.

Equal opportunities

In accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations, the European Commission pursues a strategic objective of achieving gender equality at all management levels by the end of its current mandate and applies an equal opportunities policy encouraging applications that could contribute towards more diversity, gender equality and overall geographical balance.

Conditions of employment

The salaries and conditions of employment are laid down in the Staff Regulations.

The selected candidate will be recruited as an official at grade AD14. He / she will be classified depending on the length of his / her previous professional experience in step 1 or step 2 within that grade.

The selected candidate should note the requirement under the Staff Regulations for all new staff to complete successfully a nine-month probationary period.

The place of employment is Luxembourg.

Independence and declaration of interests

Before taking up his/her duties, the selected candidate will be required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in the public interest and to declare any interests, which might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence.

Important information for candidates

Candidates are reminded that the work of the selection panels is confidential. It is forbidden for candidates to make direct or indirect contact with their individual members or for anybody to do so on their behalf. Any query has to be addressed to the secretariat of the respective panel.

Protection of personal data

The Commission will ensure that candidates' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council ⁶. This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

Application procedure

Before submitting your application, you should carefully check whether you meet all eligibility requirements ('Candidates must'), particularly concerning the types of diploma, high-level professional experience as well as linguistic capacity required. Failure to meet any of the eligibility requirements means an automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

If you want to apply, you must register via the Internet on the following website and follow the instructions concerning the various stages of the procedure:

<https://ec.europa.eu/dgs/human-resources/seniormanagementvacancies/>

You must have a valid e-mail address. This will be used to confirm your registration as well as to remain in contact with you during the different stages of the procedure. Therefore, please keep the European Commission informed about any change in your e-mail address.

To complete your application, you need to upload a CV in PDF format, preferably using the Europass CV format⁷, and to fill out, online, a letter of motivation (maximum 8 000 characters). Your CV and your letter of motivation may be submitted in any of the official languages of the European Union.

It is in your interest to ensure that your application is accurate, thorough and truthful.

Once you have finished your online registration, you will receive an electronic mail confirming that your application has been registered. If you do not receive a confirmation mail, your application has not been registered!

Please note that it is not possible to monitor the progress of your application on-line. You will be contacted directly by the European Commission regarding the status of your application.

⁶ Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC (OJ L 295, 21.11.2018, p. 39).

⁷ You can find information on how to create your Europass CV online at: <https://europa.eu/europass/en/create-europass-cv>

Applications sent by e-mail will not be accepted. If you require more information and/or encounter technical problems, please send an e-mail to: HR-MANAGEMENT-ONLINE@ec.europa.eu

It is your responsibility to complete your online registration in time. We strongly advise you not to wait until the last few days before applying, since heavy internet traffic or a fault with your internet connection could lead to the online registration being terminated before you complete it, thereby obliging you to repeat the whole process. Once the deadline for the submission of registrations has passed, you will no longer be able to introduce any data. Late registrations will not be accepted.

Closing date

The closing date for registration is 26/01/2024, 12.00 noon Brussels time, following which registration is no longer possible.
