1. Introduction

The European Commission (hereafter ‘the Commission’) is committed to protect your personal data and to respect your privacy. The Commission collects and further processes personal data pursuant to Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data (repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001).

This privacy statement explains the reason for the processing of your personal data, the way we collect, handle and ensure protection of all personal data provided, how that information is used and what rights you have in relation to your personal data. It also specifies the contact details of the responsible Data Controller with whom you may exercise your rights, the Data Protection Officer and the European Data Protection Supervisor.

The information in relation to processing operation “Video Surveillance – analogue and digital storage” undertaken by The European Commission’s DG HR Technical Security Unit is presented below.

2. Why and how do we process your personal data?

The European Commission’s DG HR Technical Security Unit (referred to hereafter as the Data Controller) collects and uses your personal data to protect all persons in European Commission buildings as well as European Commission assets and information. It thus assists the Commission in fulfilling its duty of care towards its staff members, contractors, visitors and all other persons on its premises.

To this end, the video surveillance system allows authorised Commission services to monitor in real-time incidents taking place in our buildings and to take appropriate actions swiftly. It also allows for the establishment of facts and the collection of evidence in the context of investigations following a security incident.

3. On what legal ground(s) do we process your personal data

The processing operations on personal data carried out under Article 5.1 of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, lawfulness of processing, that applies:

a): processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest on the basis of the Treaties establishing the European Communities or other legal instruments adopted on the basis thereof

4. Which personal data do we collect and further process?

Cameras film images of the immediate surroundings of the buildings, other than private areas, as well as certain rooms or passageways inside these buildings (usual or potential access points, places considered at risk or places where repeated offences have been committed).

People who might be filmed are warned locally by the presence of specific pictograms accompanied by a text identifying the responsible Directorate of the European Commission for processing the images and giving the address of the site. Due to a possible revelation of the racial or ethnic origin (even though it isn’t the purpose of identifying people based on these criteria), the processing in such cases falls under Article 10 of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725. It is justified according to Article 10 Paragraph 2 Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 for reasons of substantial public interest, namely the security of Commission premises.

5. How long do we keep your personal data?

The Data Controller only keeps your personal data for the time necessary to fulfil the purpose of collection or further processing. The recorded images are preserved for a maximum of one month (30 days) on condition that no contentious issues occurred; where, however, such issues arise, data will be kept until the end of the last possible legal procedure. Data are accessible only to a limited number of designated people who need access in order to carry out their duties within the Institution. Every physical and technical measure is taken to prevent, as far as reasonably possible, the improper use of such images, and these measures are updated in line with technological developments.

6. How do we protect and safeguard your personal data?

In order to protect your personal data, the Commission has put in place a number of technical and organisational measures. Technical measures include appropriate actions to address online security, risk of data loss, alteration of data or unauthorised access, taking into consideration the risk presented by the processing and the nature of the personal data being processed. Organisational measures include restricting access to the personal data solely to authorised persons with a legitimate need-to-know for the purposes of this processing operation.

All personal data in electronic format (e-mails, documents, databases, uploaded batches of data, etc.) are stored on the servers of the European Commission. All processing operations are carried out pursuant to the Commission Decision (EU, Euratom) 2017/46 of 10 January 2017 on the security of communication and information systems in the European Commission.

7. Who has access to your personal data and to whom is it disclosed?

Access to your personal data is provided to the Commission staff responsible for carrying out this processing operation and to authorised staff according to the “need to know” principle. Such staff abide by statutory, and when required, additional confidentiality agreements.

In appropriate cases the Data Controller may share images from CCTV data with mandated staff responsible for security or disciplinary enquiries. The information we collect will not be given to any third party without prejudice to a possible transmission to competent Member State judicial authorities and/or to other European Institutions under certain circumstances (i.e. security incidents implicating several European Institutions).

8. What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

You have specific rights as a ‘data subject’ under Chapter III (Articles 14-25) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, in particular the right to access, rectify or erase your personal data and the right to restrict the processing of your personal data. Where applicable, you also have the right to object to the processing.

You can exercise your rights by contacting the Data Controller, or in case of conflict the Data Protection Officer. If necessary, you can also address the European Data Protection Supervisor. Their contact information is given under Heading 9 below.

Where you wish to exercise your rights in the context of one or several specific processing operations, please provide their description (i.e. their Record reference(s) as specified under Heading 10 below) in your request.
