

Monitoring the Application of European Union Law

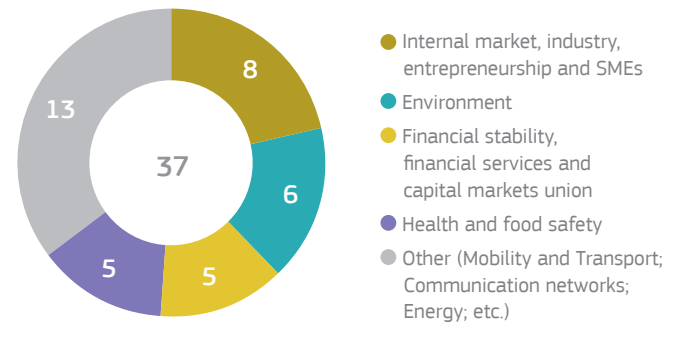

Annual Report 2016

New complaints against Slovenia fell back to the 2014 level in 2016, and new EU Pilot files dropped to a five-year low. By contrast, the number of open infringement cases and of new infringement cases for late transposition both increased to five-year highs.

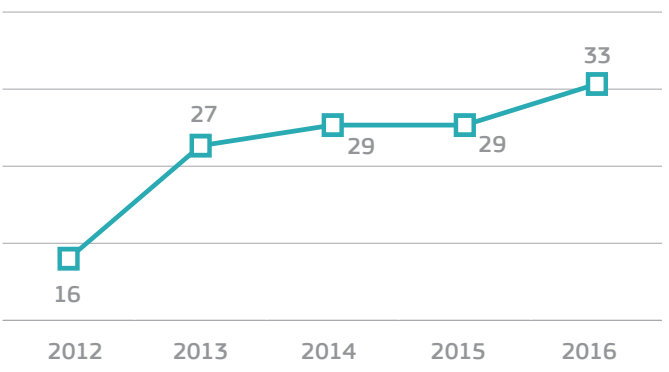

Infringement cases open on 31 December

New infringement cases opened in 2016: main policy areas

New late transposition infringement cases

New EU Pilot files opened

