

Declan COSTELLO

Nationality	➤ Irish
Academic qualifications	➤ 09/1988 – 06/1989: Masters Degree in the Economics of European Integration – College of Europe, Bruges, Belgium ➤ 09/1984 – 06/1988: Degree in Economics - Trinity College Dublin - Dublin, Ireland
Professional experience in the European Institutions	➤ Since 1 August 2019: Deputy Director-General - Directorate-General "Economic and Financial affairs" (DG ECFIN). ➤ 10/2015 – 07/2019: Principal Adviser and Mission Chief for Greece – DG ECFIN ➤ 05/2014 – 09/2015: Director for "Economies of the Member States I and Mission Chief for Greece" – DG ECFIN ➤ 01/2012 – 04/2014: Acting Director "Resources & Communication" – DG ECFIN ➤ 09/2010 – 12/2011: Head of Unit "Macroeconomic impact of structural reforms" – DG ECFIN ➤ 09/2010 – 03/2011: Acting Director "Structural reforms and competitiveness" – DG ECFIN ➤ 01/2009 – 09/2010: Head of Unit "Coordination of structural reforms and of the economic service" – DG ECFIN ➤ 08/2008 – 12/2008: Head of Unit "International economic aspects of globalisation" – DG ECFIN ➤ 06/2006 – 07/2008: Head of Unit "Structural reforms policy strategy" – DG ECFIN ➤ 10/2003 – 06/2006: Head of Unit "Labour markets, including wages, tax and benefit systems, human capital and labour productivity" – DG ECFIN ➤ 01/1999 – 10/2003: Economist "Public finances, with particular reference to the euro zone" – DG ECFIN ➤ 03/1994 – 12/1998: Economist "Institutional, legal and financial issues related to EMU" – DG ECFIN ➤ 01/1992 – 10/1992: Economist seconded to the Cabinet of the Portuguese Minister of the Finance during Portugal's first Presidency of the EU – DG ECFIN ➤ 01/1991 – 02/1994: Economist "Economic aspects of integration and evaluation of external policies" – DG ECFIN
Language Skills	➤ English (mother tongue) ➤ French ➤ Irish, Spanish