

Anna Terrón Cusí

ABREVIATED CV

Born in Barcelona, Spain, October 6th 1962.

BA in Political Science and Administration.

Speaks English, Italian, French, Spanish and Catalan.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

2018- Present Director at Fundación Internacional y para Iberoamérica de Administración y políticas públicas (FIIAPP).

2014 – Present Lecturer at Faculty of International Relations and Communication, Blanquerna Univesity, Barcelona

Lecturer on migration policies and international relations

2012 – Present Special Adviser for Commissioner Cecilia Malmström

She has been Special Adviser for Cecilia Malmström, Commissioner for Migration and Home Affairs (2012 – 2014), currently Commissioner for Trade.

2015 –2018 President and cofounder Instrategies

As President she provides strategic guidance on the company's activities.

2013 – 2015 Special Representative and Spokesperson. Union for the Mediterranean Secretariat. Since October 2015 external consultant at UfM Secretariat

The UfM constitutes a framework for political, economic and social relations between the European Union and the Southern and Eastern Mediterranean countries encompassing 43 member states. The Secretariat of the Union for the Mediterranean was established in 2010 with the aim to enhance regional cooperation and partnership between the two shores of the Mediterranean through the implementation of specific projects. As Special Representative, she was in charge of external relations, communications and events of the Secretariat.

2010 – 2012 State Secretary for Immigration and Emigration. Government of Spain

During her mandate was adopted the current Regulation implementing the Migration Law, and the second Immigrants Social Integration Plan. She represented Spain in the Council of Ministers of Justice and Home Affairs in the EU. She represented Spain at the Rabat Process (Southern European countries and Africa Atlantic) and she was leading the Spanish delegation at the Spain-Morocco bilateral Commission for Migration, as well as in other formal and informal forums and organisations.

2006-2010 Secretary for the European Union of the Catalan Government and the Government Delegate to the EU.

During that period, she was also member of the Committee of the Regions of the European Union, being spokesperson at the Commission on Citizenship, Governance, Institutional and External Affairs, member of the Economic and Social Policy Committee, and founding member of the Euro-Mediterranean Regional and Local Assembly (ARLEM).

She led the program to support the Union for the Mediterranean -and the establishment of its headquarters in Barcelona- of the Catalan Government, together with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the City of Barcelona.

1994-2004 Member of the European Parliament

Member of the Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs Committee 1994-2004), spokesperson of the European Socialists Group (1999-2004), member of the Foreign Affairs Committee, member of the Industry, External Trade, Research and Energy Committee and the Regional Policy Committee.

During that period, she was Vice President of the Parliamentary Delegation for the Mashreq countries and the Gulf States, and a member of the Euro-Mediterranean Parliamentary Assembly since its inception in 1995, in parallel with the launch of the Barcelona Process. She actively participated in the development of the Euromediterranean policy and in establishing the advanced status of partnership between the EU and Morocco. She participated in the process of EU enlargement to the countries of Central and Eastern Europe and in the reinforcement of the EU relationships with Latin American countries.

1990-1999 Secretary of International Cooperation and European Policy at Socialist Party of Catalonia.

During her mandate, it was established the Secretariat and the European Parliament Office. She was a member of the Council of the Party of European Socialists.

1982-1989 Management tasks to private companies and local administrations.

AFFILIATIONS

Migration Policy Institute. Member of the Transatlantic Council on Migration (Brussels / Washington).

Elcano Royal Institute. Member of the Scientific Council (Madrid).

Friends of Europe. Member the Board of Trustees (Brussels).

European Council on Foreign Relations. Member of the Spanish Council of ECFR (London).

OTHER ACTIVITIES AND HONOURS

She teaches and lecture as a guest at universities and research centres mainly about the European Union and its institutions, EU external relations, Euro-Mediterranean policy, European policy of Justice and Home Affairs, and International Migration.

She collaborates with various research institutions in migration, EU and international relations. She publishes on International Migration, European Union, Euro-Mediterranean policy and Regional Policy both in specialised journals and media.

Chevalier de la Légion d'Honneur of the French Republic.