January 2019 - Independent internal audit and risk consultant
Main clients have included the European Bank for Reconstruction & Development (EBRD), Food & Agriculture Organisation of the United Nations (FAO), International Telecommunications Union (ITU), and Inter-American Development Bank (IDB).

June 1993 – December 2018 European Bank for Reconstruction & Development, London
Managing Director, Chief Internal Auditor
Joined the EBRD as Senior Internal Auditor in June 1993 and promoted several times before being appointed Head of Internal Audit in 2006.

June 1993 – December 2018

The position of Head of Internal Audit was re-graded to Managing Director, Chief Internal Auditor at the end of 2015.

The EBRD's Internal Audit Department covers all aspects of the Bank's operations (USD61 billion assets; 2,300 employees). Reporting directly to the President of the EBRD, with a dotted line relationship to the Audit Committee of the Board, I was responsible for:

- stakeholder management, with particular emphasis on ensuring on-going confidence of the Board, Management and Technical Assistance Donors on the independence, objectivity and expertise of the Internal Audit Department;
- ensuring compliance with the IIA Standards and Code of Ethics;
- recruitment, supervision, mentoring, training, performance evaluation, and career progression of Internal Audit staff;
- oversight of the annual risk assessment and audit prioritisation process;
- presentation of the proposed annual work programme to the Executive Committee and Audit Committee for approval;
- approval of engagement plans and reports issued to audit clients, with subsequent presentation of key issues to the Executive Committee and the Audit Committee;
- performance of ad hoc investigations and advisory assignments;
- management of the Internal Audit Department budget.

Other personal accomplishments include:

- President's appointee on the Bank's Staff Grievances and Appeals Committee;
- Member of the EBRD's Internal Controls Framework Steering Committee as well as other ad hoc committees and working groups; independent observer on the EBRD's Risk Committee;
- performed quality assurance reviews of the Internal Audit Departments of other IFIs (European Investment Bank; Asian Development Bank; African Development Bank), as well as the Organisation for Security & Cooperation in Europe (OSCE);
- participated, as a member of an Institute of Internal Auditors team, in a Quality Assurance review of the Internal Audit Department of the Telecom Italia Group;
- EBRD representative at the meetings of the Representatives of the Internal Audit Services of the UN Organisations and Multilateral Financial Institutions, and the meetings of the MBD/IFI Heads of Audit (i.e. EBRD, EIB, IMF, IBRD, AsDB, AfDB, IADB).

Took voluntary early retirement after 25 years' service on 31 December 2018.
