

Conditions for temporary EU inter-institutional media accreditation issued by the European Commission

Temporary accreditation can be granted for a maximum of 6 months to temporary staff or trainees of currently accredited media organisations.

The following documents must be attached with each application:

1. For EU nationals: identity card or passport from a Member State of the European Union. For non-EU nationals: passport from country of origin
2. A recent letter on headed paper or equivalent, signed by the editor-in-chief or director of the media organisation indicating your position and the duration of your stay in Brussels