

European Commission

Monitoring the Application of European Union Law

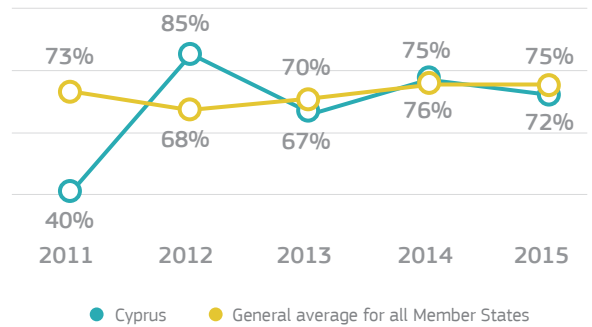

Annual Report 2015

New complaints against Cyprus continued to drop in 2015, reaching the lowest level in the last five years. The number of new EU Pilot files was unchanged from 2014. Open infringement cases increased slightly to their highest level since 2012, though they were still below the 2011 peak. The rising trend in the number of new infringement cases for late transposition continued but the 2015 figure remained well below the 2011 level.

New EU Pilot files opened

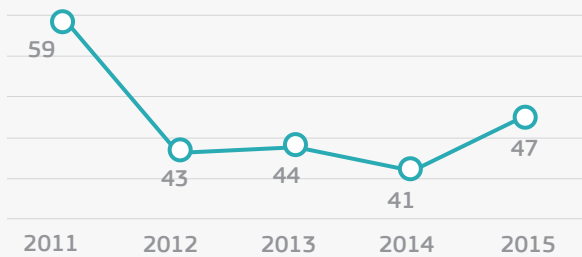

EU Pilot files: evolution of the resolution rate

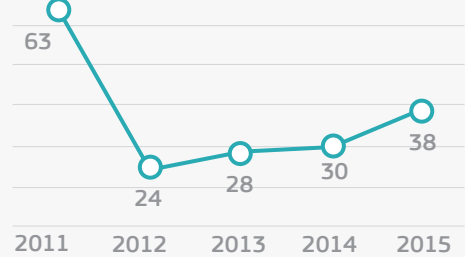

INFRINGEMENT CASES

Infringement cases open on 31 December

TRANSPOSITION OF DIRECTIVES

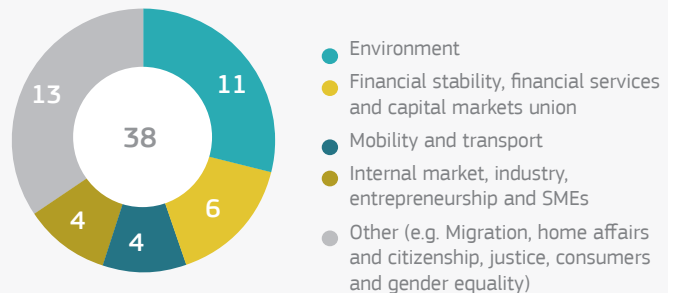

New late transposition infringement cases

47 new infringement cases opened in 2015: main policy areas

38 new late transposition infringement cases opened in 2015: main policy areas

More information:

European Commission Staff Working document - Annual Report 2015 "Monitoring the application of European Union Law" (part II: Member States)