

Pieter Hasekamp (1965) has been director of the CPB Netherlands Bureau for Economic Policy Research since March 2020.

He studied Economics at Erasmus University Rotterdam and at the European University Institute in Florence, where he obtained a PhD.

Subject of his academic work was the role of credibility in economic policy.

Before his current position, he held various management positions at the Dutch Ministry of Finance, the Ministry of Health, the National Association of Health Insurers and again at the Ministry of Finance, as Director-general for Tax and Customs Policy.

Pieter Hasekamp is an independent member of the Netherlands Social and Economic Council (SER) and an advisory member of the Scientific Council for Government Policy (WRR).