

MOCK CONFERENCE with INTERPRETATION

11 February 2021, 14:30-17:00h

“COVID: vaccinations, civil liberties and individual responsibility”

Outlines and keywords

DE

Titel: Impfstoffentwicklung und klinische Prüfungen – Rolle freiwilliger Testpersonen

Outline: Zu Beginn ein kurzer Überblick über die verschiedenen Schritte der Impfstoffentwicklung sowie ein Rückblick in die frühen Phasen der Medizingeschichte. Danach richte ich den Blick auf die aktuelle Covid-Situation: Wie liefen die Tests an Freiwilligen rund um Covid 19-Impfstoffe ab und vor allem: Welche Faktoren und Motivation treiben Menschen an, sich freiwillig für klinische Prüfungen zu melden?

Begriffe/Namen:

Herdenimmunität, Erreger, Antikörper, ProbandInnen/ Testpersonen, Verträglichkeit, Zielpopulation, Pockenimpfung, Edward Jenner, James Philipp, Kuhpocken, Menschenpocken, Vakzination („vacca“), Versuchskaninchen, Placebo, Gefahrenzulage

EN

I am going to give a speech about the road back to normality for the UK later this year, and the dangers posed by Covid variants which could evolve to evade vaccines.

Here are some key words:

- PPE
- Vaccine rollout
- vaccinations
- Clinically vulnerable population
- Jab
- Milestone
- Backbenchers
- Natural selection

ES

I intend to appear as David Serrano, PhD In philosophy and ethics, member of the Comité Español de Bioética y Ética Sanitaria. My speech will be devoted to the necessity of politics in times of pandemics and the falsehoods of so called technical solutions, and to the fact that authorities must act and implement power.

There will be no specific terminology or names other than:

- Michel Foucault, Vigilar y castigar
- Peste negra, confinamiento
- Primera ola, segunda ola, cepa
- Garrotxa (comarca de Catalunya), Frente marítimo
- Soluciones técnicas, soluciones políticas, responsabilidad individual

FR

I would like to talk about the French population unwilling to get vaccinated and use as a counter-example Asian countries (and maybe Israel).

Le covid nous permet-il de savoir qui des démocraties ou des régimes totalitaires a le mieux géré la crise ? Pourquoi certains pays ont-ils surmonté la pandémie de main de maître quand d'autres se sont enlisés dans une crise sans fin ? Quelles sont les clés du succès et les erreurs à éviter, l'exemple de la France, de l'Allemagne, du Royaume-Uni, d'Israël et de Taiwan éclairent notre lanterne.
