

Denmark's transposition of the Consumer Rights Directive (2011/83/EU) and the changes made therein by the Better enforcement and modernisation Directive (2019/2161/EU)

The Danish Ministry of Justice can inform that Denmark transposed the Consumer Rights Directive (2011/83/EU) into Danish Law by two legislative acts adopted by the Danish Parliament on 17 December 2013. The transposition was notified to the Commission through the NEMs database. The Danish Ministry of Justice is pleased to inform that Denmark has transposed the changes made to the Consumer Rights Directive by the Better enforcement and modernisation Directive (2019/2161/EU) by a legislative act adopted by the Danish Parliament on 23 November 2021.

With reference to Article 29 of the Consumer Rights Directive the Danish Ministry of Justice hereby informs the Commission of Denmark's use of the regulatory choices referred to in Article 3(4), Article 6(7), Article 6(8), Article 7(4), Article 8(6), Article 9(1a), Article 9(3) and the second and third paragraphs of Article 16 of the Directive:

Article 3(4)

Off-premises contracts where the value does not exceed 350 DKK (at the going exchange rate approx. 46 EUR) and where the goods and the payment are exchanged simultaneously are exempted from the provisions on consumer information, cf. Section 7(2)(7) of the Danish Consumer Rights Act.

Article 6(7)

The contractual information the trader is required to give to the consumer in distance and off-premises contracts has to be given in Danish, if the trader has marketed the goods or services in Danish, unless the consumer consents to receive the information in a different language, cf. Section 8(3) of the Danish Consumer Rights Act.

Article 6(8)

Denmark has decided not to use the possibility in Article 6(8) to impose further information requirements.

Article 7(4), Article 8(6), Article 9(1a) Article 9(3), and the second and third paragraphs of Article 16

Denmark has decided not to apply these provisions.
